

Day 21 – Bank of England Date Range Filter – Keith Screen shots

Four Screen shots showing:

- 1) Input Google Form
- 2) Zapier Agent Flow & Summary
- 3) Email Happy Path (Data on both News & Publications feeds)
- 4) Email Happy Path (No Data example)
- 5) Email Unhappy Path (Invalid date range)

1) Input dates via Google Form

The screenshot shows a Google Form titled "Day 21 - Bank of England Date Range Filter (Input)". The form is for "Enter Date Range for Bank of England News and Publications". It is shared with "keithswan01@gmail.com" and is not shared publicly. A note indicates that an asterisk (*) denotes required questions.

From Date *
Date: dd/mm/yyyy (calendar icon)
(!) This is a required question

To Date *
Date: dd/mm/yyyy (calendar icon)
(!) This is a required question

Buttons: Submit (purple button) and Clear form (light blue button)

2) Zapier Flow & Summary

Bank of England RSS Monitor - Concise Summary

What it does: Automatically fetches and filters Bank of England news & publications based on user-specified date ranges.

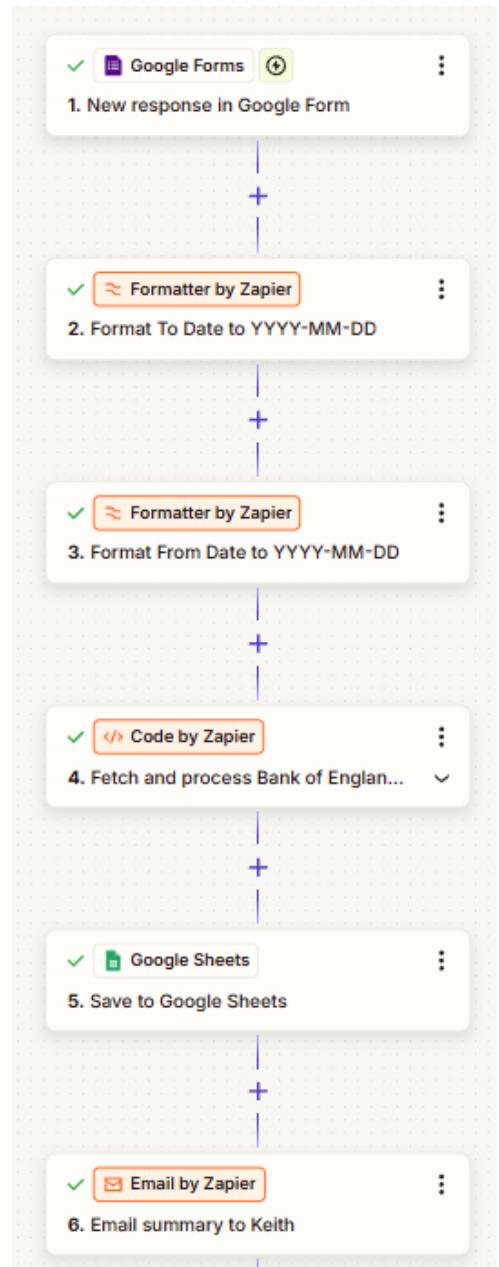

How it works:

1. Input: Google Form with From/To date fields
2. Processing: Fetches BoE RSS feeds, filters by date range, validates dates
3. Output: Google Sheets row + HTML email with filtered results

Key Features:

- Smart filtering
 - Only shows BoE content within your date range
- Error handling
 - Red alerts for invalid dates (e.g., To Date before From Date)
- Professional output
 - Clean tables in email with direct links to BoE content
- Automated logging
 - All results saved to spreadsheet with counts and summaries

Perfect for: Monitoring BoE policy announcements, news, and publications within specific timeframes for financial research or compliance.

- 3) Output (Happy Path) valid formatted email containing 2 tables for BoE News & Publications
